Wonder Film

The book I would like to see made into a film is called "Wonder". This story is about a boy, whose name is August. He has a scary ~~dear~~ issues. August is only 10 year old but he has already had more than 10 surgeries on his face. He ~~could not~~ speak and hear. Cause of his surgeries he does not look quite handsome. August is frightened to go outside and meet new people, but he has to go to school. August has not studied to school before. His mother taught him. In the 5th grade August decides to go to school. It was a challenge for him. He had not got any friends before. August came to school and some of his classmates started to laugh at his ugly face. However, August met kind people and become friends with them. At the end of the story August won a prize at the graduation ceremony for the most brave person in the school. Then his mother said, "You are a real wonder, Auggie". The book has a happy end. August ~~is~~ is not afraid of outside, school and new people anymore. This book is about real friends and kindness.

I think that filmmaker would encounter with the issues of cast. In the film most of actors would be children. It can be a big problem. Children may be shamed.

I think it is a great idea to make a screen version of this book. This story teaches us not to be so cruel and harmful. I also believe that the film will be such a motivation for people, who has the same problem of bullying, not to give up.
