A finest travel I had so far

December ^{reaching it's 25th day} is ~~attracted~~ ~~attracted~~ already knocking on my windows, which means it's Christmas Eve today that I would like to spend outside my home. I checked in the website that my friends once recommended to see, and quite to my suprise, there were a lot of hotels available. One caught my eye at the edge of my city. It's 40 $ per day - quite the price, but as it's a holiday, the price has been cut down to just 20 $. That, as I said, attracted me, I decided to pay another day up front, ^{so it's a two-day stay} With the purchase complete, I packed my luggage, placed it into the car, and drove towards the hotel. As I saw pictures on the website and compared to what I saw as I have parked in front of the hotel, they were not ^{exaggerating} ~~joking~~ about the aesthetic. It looked overall nice. I entered into the 20-story tall building. Receptionist gave me the key and I headed to the 15th floor with my luggage. As I got comfortable in my room, I couldn't resist but watch the city unfold in holiday lights for 2 days straight. Lunches were good as well. Upon the end, I left the hotel with a good, satisfied soul. And honestly, I would recommend these travellers to check this hotel out.
